Visitors Kept Busy Seeing Salt Lake And Its Attractive Surroundings.

The South Dakota editors are still ous performance of vesterday, which did not terminate until the last event at the Salt Palace was run off last night, they were out bright and early this morning, and after breakfast were taken out into the suburbs by the management of Lagoon and given the keys to the Davis county resort. The visitors expressed themselves as being enchanted with everything they saw, from the bears to the shooting gallery. Taken all in all they spent a most enjoyable morning, to return to the city in time for lunch. This afternoon they were tendered a free ride by the Consolidated Railway & Powercompany, which transported the moulders of public thought to Calder's. Here the time at Lagoon was duplicated. Tomorrow the party will bid farewell to Utah and head for Glenwood Springs, to later stop off at Colorado Springs and Denver on their way back to Omaha.

Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality.

They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood comething on which every function of their bodies depends.

Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and endurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer.

PARDEE AND WELLS.

Governors of Two States Have a Joyous Meeting Near Santa Cruz.

Gov. Wells was at his office today tryng to keep cool, a hard thing to do se soon after his return from California, where he has been reveling in an atmosphere that ranged between 58 and 60. The governor returned Thursday night, having been gone just four weeks. His family is still there and will remain until the cool weather sets

The governor says that he had t most pleasing events of his outing was a visit he and his wife made to the camp of Gov. Pardee of California, in the red words of Big Basin about 25 miles from Santa Cruz. The governor went with a party of over 100 citizens of Boulder creek and they were received by Gov. Pardee very cordially. In the afternoon a barbecue was had, after which speeches and tossis were after which speeches and toasts were ndulged in.

The governor was surprised to find that John Q. Packard and F. W. Billings, formerly of the Germania smelt-er, are now residents of Santa Cruz. These life long friends, however, have become involved in a dispute and now never speak as they pass by. They both have palatial homes and Mr. Billings entertuned the governor and his party at his summer residence, Villa Fon-
